Emma V. VanDerWege

Emma Viola VanDerWege, 91, a native of Decatur County, died Thursday, July 18, 2013, at the Norton County Hospital.

She was born Nov. 7, 1921, at the family farm seven miles northeast of Oberlin, the daughter of Anton H. and Sarea (Thoren) Anderson. She grew up on the farm and attended the Bethel country grade school and Decatur Community High School.

She married W.J. "Bill" Menges in April of 1939, and they had three children, Gaylen Lee, Gary Dean, and Connie Lynn. They lived in Norcat, where the children attended school.

In December of 1962, she married Jay C. Gallentine at the Methodist parsonage in Norcat and they lived on the Gallentine farm five miles southwest of Norcat. They adopted two sons, Randy Jay and Val Gene. In July of 1977, the family moved to Norton.

She married Veryl VanDerWege on April 28, 2007, at the First United Methodist Church in Norton and they made their home in Norton.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Norton and United Methodist Women in Norcat and Norton. She was a past member of Royal Neighbors Lodge, Mid-Century Club of Federation, Eagles Auxiliary, and the Senior Citizen Golden Glow Club.

Corrections

The story about the retirement of Mike Helm from the U.S. Postal Service in the July 10 issue of The Oberlin Herald incorrectly stated that he had served five generations of the Fortin family. He actually served five generations of the Roe family, which included: Earl and Elsie Roe, their son, Don and Ardis Roe; their daughter, Jolene and Jerry Fortin; their son, Daren and Erica Fortin, and daughters, Jacie, Jenna and Jori. This was a reporter's error.

☆☆☆☆☆ The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

She was also a volunteer hair dresser at the Andbe Home, played in the Arvid Ross Old Timers Band as a drummer. Whatsits Kitchen Band and later formed her own group named Tri-Alls, entertaining in nursing homes.

Survivors include her husband of the home; daughter, Connie Lewis, Olathe; son, Randy Gallentine, Pinetop, Ariz.; daughter-in-law, Judy Menges, Colby; sister-in-law, Sharon Beins, Wood River, Neb.; six grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

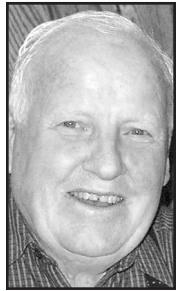

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Jay Gallentine, three sons, Gaylen and Gary Menges and Val Gallentine; a brother, Lee Anderson, four sisters, Lavina Worley, Mildred Snow, Ruby Roberts, and Ila Janousek and their spouses, and a sister-in-law, Idah Hoover.

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 3, 2013, at the church in Norton. Inurnment will follow in the Oberlin Cemetery.

A memorial was established in her name to the Norton United Methodist Women, in care of Enfield Funeral Home, 215 W. Main, Norton, Kan., 67654. Condolences may be left at www.enfieldfh.com.
